

NC A&T SU RALEIGH/WAKE ALUMNI CHAPTER

NC A&T SU Alumni Paving the Path to Success

Name/Title:

Mr. Larry D. Keith/Assistant Dean of Admissions, Associate Director of Office of Educational Development & Director of Special Programs at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, School of Medicine.

Birth/Family:

Mr. Larry D. Keith was born and raised in Raleigh, NC as one of four children of Ms. Adline Keith. He has been married to Mrs. Wilma Keith for 30 years. Mr. and Mrs. Keith have two children and one grandchild. Mr. Keith is a member of St. Paul AME Church in Raleigh, NC.

Education/Training:

Mr. Larry Keith received his Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from N.C. A&T SU in 1975. He received a Master of Science degree in Biology from Virginia State University in 1976. He received a Master of Science degree in Anatomy from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1985.

Employment History/Professional Experience:

Mr. Keith began his professional career as a Science Teacher at Caroline County Schools in Bowling Green, VA from 1976 to 1979. From 1980 to 1983, he was Assistant Director of the Special Training and Enrichment Program (S.T.E.P.) and an Instructor of Biology and Chemistry at St. Augustine's College in Raleigh, NC. From 1984 to 1987, he was a part-time Instructor of Neuroanatomy at Shaw University in Raleigh, NC. From 1985 to 1992, he was Associate Director of the Medical Education Development Program at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Mr. Keith is a Teaching Staff of a Medical Gross Anatomy Course in the School of Medicine at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill from 1986 to present. He is a Clinical Assistant Professor in the Department of Allied Health Sciences (Director for Radiologic Science Gross Anatomy course) at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill from 1986 to present. He is the Director of the Medical Education Development Program at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill from 1992 to present. Mr. Keith is presently the Director of Special Programs Division and Director of Recruitment in the School of Medicine at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill since 1998. Mr. Keith is also the Assistant Dean for Admissions in the School of Medicine and Associate Director in the Office of Educational Development at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Awards, Honors & Recognitions:

Mr. Keith has received numerous honors including the AAMC GSA-MAS Special Recognition Award (2006); The National Association of Minority Medical Educators (NAMME); Award for Outstanding Contribution to Medical Education (2006); UNC-Chapel Hill C. Knox Massey Distinguished Service Award (2006); The Larry D. Keith Loyalty Fund Scholarship (2006); North Carolina Health Careers Access Program Leadership Award (1998); NAMME Southern Region Service Award (1997); Spectrum Award for Outstanding Contribution to Medical Education (1996); Kaiser-Permanente Excellence in Teaching Award, School of Medicine, UNC-CH (1995); Merit Award, Black Faculty Caucus, UNC-Chapel Hill (1995 & 1999); Student National Medical Association Award (1993, 1989, 1987, and 1985),

Memberships/Associations:

Mr. Keith is a member of several professional associations, including National Association of Minority Medical Educators (NAMME) – National Vice President, (1993 to 1997); Chair, Budget and Finance, Southern Region, (1992 to 1998); 16 Institutions Health Sciences Consortium – Advisory Committee, (1994 to present); Group on Student Affairs – Minority Affairs Section Coordinating Committee (GSA-MAS) – Southern Region MAS Chair, (2003).

Current University Service includes: Voting Member of the Admissions Committee in the School of Medicine; Voting Member of the Admissions Committee in the School of Dentistry; Member of the Scholarship Committee in the School of Medicine; Member of the Medical Alumni Scholarship Committee in the School of Medicine; & Committee on Project 3000 by 2000.

Mr. Larry Keith has made a major contribution in paving the path to success. We honor and salute your many accomplishments.